

LOGAN AIRPORT'S HOLIDAY TRAVEL TIPS

This holiday season, start your travel off right and get to Boston Logan with a plan. Logan officials offer these handy tips for travelers this festive time of year.

GETTING TO THE AIRPORT

The first tip: Leave your car at home and consider taking the Logan Express bus, MBTA Blue and Silver lines, private bus service, or the water ferry.

With locations in Back Bay, Braintree, Danvers, Framingham and Woburn, Logan Express is a great way to travel to and from the airport. Relax with a comfortable and convenient ride that drops you off and picks you up right at your terminal.

Insider's tip: If you take the Logan Express bus or the weekday water ferries, pre-book your ticket online and skip to the front of the security line once you get to Logan.

But if you do decide to drive and park, reserve your parking spot early at FlyLogan.com since airport garages fill up quickly around the holidays.

You can relax and get updated alerts right to your phone.

Whether traveling for business or pleasure, make the most of your airport experience by pre-ordering food for pickup at BOS2Go. You'll be able to skip the line, grab your food and head right to your flight.

If you are traveling with kids, locate the nearby Kidport in Terminals A, B and C and let the little ones have some fun.

and Wahlburgers. Fresh markets include Berkshire Farms Market and Boston Public Market.

To sample a local brew, you can choose from Harpoon's Tap Room, Cisco Brewers, Sam Adams Brewhouse, Boston Harbor Distillery and Boston Beer Works. And for coffee lovers, you'll find plenty of Dunkin' Donuts shops at every turn, along with Starbucks, Peet's Coffee and more.

AIRPORT SHOPPING

Why not take care of some holiday shopping at Logan while you wait? Pick up a limited edition 'Boston Logan' sweatshirt at Hudson News, NewsLink or Shop BOS, and stay warm and cozy on your flight.

Safe travels!
